

GENEALOGY RESOURCE POLICY

(approved March 6, 2008)

Two adjacent rooms in the lower level of the Library have been dedicated as The Laura Curtis Family History Room. These two rooms contain genealogical resource materials and equipment owned and operated by the Lucas County Genealogy Society. The collection includes materials pertaining to family histories, as well as some local, state and national history and statistics. The Chariton Newspapers are made available on microfilm and are partly indexed.

All Library Patrons may use these facilities with the permission and/or assistance of society members during regular Library hours. Lucas County Genealogical Society Volunteers are available to assist patrons in utilizing the collection on Monday and Tuesday afternoons, and are often available by appointment or on request during the rest of the week. Requests for assistance and information can be phoned or faxed using the Library's contact numbers, or mailed c/o the Library, or emailed to: lucasgene@hotmail.com
